In the future, the world is still haunted by “Hero Day,” a battle with the artificial intelligence Ultron. As a result of H-Day, the original Avengers have been replaced by new heroes working in concert with the totalitarian government. Among this new breed of hero is James Stark, son of the original Iron Man and the Wasp. James’ mentor, Kyle Jarvis, is secretly the Red Skull in disguise, working with Ultron’s captive consciousness to covertly seize control of the world.

The elderly Steve Rogers was recruited by his old friend Luke Cage, who has formed an underground resistance called the Defenders. Steve retook the Super-Soldier Serum and became Captain America once more. Captain America set out to rescue Tony Stark’s disembodied head from the Raft prison. Aided by Ms. Marvel, the Defenders and a new Hawkeye, Captain America fought a ruthless James over possession of Tony’s head. The tide was turned in Cap’s favor by the sudden return of another former Avenger: the mighty Thor!
